he entire session, with commission houses market was extremely bullish at the opening, due to the unfavorable crop prospects, and everybody seemed disposed to buy. With July up to 4%c, the sentiment in the pit changed, and liquidation on a large scale set in, which caused a reaction in the price. A rally occurred later in the ession, and closing prices were steady, with July unchanged, after selling between 48%c and 48%c. Local receipts were 429 cars, with 2% of contract grade.

Oats were active all day and prices were higher. The unbroken drought in the East and the firmness in the cash article were the main supporting influences. Offerings were very scarce early in the day, but later, with prices at the top, there was considerable liquidation by local longs, and prices receded. July closed $45% higher, at 364,975%c, after ranging between $5%c and $7c. Local receipts were 18 cars. RANGE OF FUTURES

Provisions were dull and undecided mos the day. Influences affecting the market were about evenly divided, and little change in price was manifested early in the session. Covering by shorts late in the day caused firmness, and Sept. pork closed we higher, at $16.95, Sept. lard was up 1971-be at $8.92/498.95, with ribs 10c higher at
